THE BEGINNING OF RIVERVIEW ASSOCIATES, INC.

On Tuesday, March 2, 1976 at 7:30 PM, our Riverview Association was officially activated at the home of Joanne and Marvin Black.

There had been a recent informal gathering of approximately 40 ladies residing in Riverview Estates and it was the consensus of their opinion that a civic organization should be started. During their course of discussion concerning neighborhood problems and involvement, a list of items of concern and interest was prepared and Don Perry, representing the Developers, The LaVista Corporation, explained that under the by-laws set up for such an organization, all lot owners were automatically members and it was only necessary to meet and elect officers in order to activate the group.

It was decided that offices should be held jointly by husband and wife, and that a nominating committee consisting of five people should be chosen to select a proposed slate of officers. The following ladies, along with their husbands, were asked to comprise the first nominating committee:

Mrs. S. R. Robinson (Donna), Chairman
Mrs. J. E. Echols (Ethel)
Mrs. T. F. Forkner (Martha)
Mrs. J. M. McCormick (Betty)
Mrs. B. T. Porter (Linda)

The purpose of the meeting was for election of officers and other business matters. Upon motion duly made, seconded and approved, the following temporary officers were elected :

Chairman: Donna Robinson
Secretary: Barbara Howard

A quorum was present and it was stated that, according to the existing by-laws, the RIVERVIEW ASSOCIATES, INC. could be activated by a vote of the general membership. Charlie Davidson, made the motion and it was seconded and duly approved.

The acting chairman received a report from the nominating committee, composed of the following:

Donna and Stewart Robinson (Co-Chairmen)
Martha and Tom Forkner
Linda and Brad Porter
Ethel and Jim Echols
Betty and Joe McCormick

It was necessary for Donna and Stewart to resign as nominating committee chairmen since they were temporary. Martha Forkner presented the following slate of officers for consideration:

Co-Presidents: Donna and Stewart Robinson
Co-Vice Presidents: Kay and Bill White
Co-Secretaries: Barbara and Henry Howard
Co-Treasurers: Jane and Joe McDade.

This group along with Martha and Tom Forkner also was elected to serve as Directors.
